FOSTER AUDITORIUM

The University of Alabama Athletics Department renovated and expanded Foster Auditorium to create a new home for the Crimson Tide's volleyball and women's basketball programs, beginning in 2011. The remodel of Foster included refurbishing the arena portion of the building with new seating, both on the floor level and the second level that overlooks the court, creating an impressive competitive atmosphere for both sports.

"We are pleased to be able to renew and restore Foster Auditorium to its position as a vital hub of campus life," Alabama Director of Athletics Mal Moore said. "Our volleyball and women's basketball programs will have a tremendous arena to practice and play in that is located in the heart of campus."

The restoration of the venerable three-story building was completed in January of 2011, in time for the women's basketball game between Alabama and Florida on Feb. 13, 2011, when the Tide defeated the Gators 64-59.

"I have always said this is what this building should be," Alabama head women's basketball coach Wendell Hudson said. "It will definitely help us with a home-court advantage. We want opposing teams to dislike coming here. Knowing the history of the building and what has happened here, and to see it come into what it is today is something special."

The renovation also included suites for both programs to house locker rooms, team areas, meeting and video rooms and coaches offices. A weight room and athletics training facilities also were included in the project.

Originally built in 1939, Foster Auditorium was named in 1942 for Richard Clarke Foster, president of the University of Alabama from 1937-41. It was the largest and most expensive of 14 buildings added to campus between 1936 and 1939 using funds from the Public Works Administration.

In its original capacity, Foster served as home for intramural sports, graduations, concerts, lectures and campus meetings. It also served as the home of several varsity athletic programs over the years, including men's basketball from 1939-68, women's volleyball from 1974-81 and 1989-95, women's basketball, which played selected games in Foster, from 1975-81, and gymnastics from 1975-84.

Additionally, the women's athletic program, including coaches and administrative offices, was located in Foster during the 1970s through the early 1980s.

The volleyball program, which began in 1974, practiced and competed in Foster for 15 seasons (1974-81 and 1988-95). The volleyball program was the last team to leave Foster, moving to Coleman Coliseum beginning with the 1996 season. After playing four seasons (1996-99) on the main Coleman Coliseum floor, volleyball competed in the Coleman Auxiliary Volleyball Extension (CAVE) for 11 seasons (2000-10), before returning to Foster Auditorium in 2011.

Women's basketball played 35 games in Foster from 1975-81, splitting time between Foster Auditorium and the main floor of Coleman Coliseum, until permanently moving to Coleman Coliseum from 1981-2011. Following the completion of the renovation, women's basketball played its final three home games of the 2010-11 season in Foster before its first complete season in the building during the 2011-12 campaign.

With eight national championships, 10 runner-up finishes, a nation-leading 34 Final Four appearances and 111 first team All-America honors, the Southeastern Conference stands firmly as the nation's premier intercollegiate women's basketball conference.

ON CAMPUS

THE SIGHTS OF ONE OF AMERICA'S MOST BEAUTIFUL AND HISTORICAL UNIVERSITIES

from athletic events and cultural experiences ...

to Greek life and everything in between.

Life on The University of Alabama campus is defined by opportunities. If you want to get involved, join one of more than 350 student organizations, help plan concerts and speaker series, participate in intramural teams or run for student government.

If you enjoy the arts, you can take advantage of a rich and varied schedule of musical, dance and theatre performances, art galleries and exhibitions, lectures and readings by writers, poets and experts on every topic imaginable. You can enrich your knowledge of the state and University's history by visiting one of UA's fine museums, which house countless historical artifacts and offer hands-on exploration opportunities.

From the architecture on campus to the landscaping, the University of Alabama campus is one of the most beautiful places in the state of Alabama.

The Ferguson Center was completed in 1973. Plans at the time called for the building to be constructed over Woods Hall, but it was built slightly to the north thanks to a student campaign to save the art building.

The Ferguson Center Game Room is the perfect place to unwind, test your skill at a video game, play a friendly game of pool or Ping-Pong, or enter a campus tournament. With seven pool tables, video games, a Ping-Pong table, computer gaming and televisions, the Game Room offers a fun escape to the daily pressures of college life.

The University of Alabama offers a complete educational, cultural and social experience. Whatever your interests, you'll find a group, an organization, an activity or a program that will appeal to you at UA.

The newly expanded Student Recreation Center offers first-class recreation facilities to students, faculty and staff. It includes two multi-use gyms, nine multi-purpose courts, weight machines, 1/8-mile jogging track, extensive cardio area, locker rooms, indoor swimming pool, dry and steam saunas, 12 lighted tennis courts, four aerobics rooms, eight racquetball courts and a squash court—together encompassing more than 200,000 square feet. The facility's outdoor aquatic area, which opened in the summer of 2003, features a lazy river, lap swim, large water-park-type slide and plenty of deck space.

MAL M. MOORE

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

The University of Alabama's director of athletics since 1999, Mal Moore has made an indelible mark on one of the nation's most storied athletic programs, leading a department that has enjoyed tremendous success athletically and academically and has undergone an unprecedented period of growth during his tenure.

Through his guidance, Alabama's athletic department remains focused on his vision of having all Crimson Tide athletic teams and student-athletes competitive at the highest level nationally while continuing to elevate athletic facilities at the Capstone to premier status nationally for all sports.

During his tenure as director of athletics, Moore has overseen more than $200 million of capital improvements to University of Alabama athletic facilities. Those projects have encompassed the entire scope of all Crimson Tide athletic programs and have benefitted every Alabama student-athlete, coach and administrator.

Throughout his career, Moore has worked with a diversified field of constituents, from fellow coaches and former players, to fans and the business community. All of those experiences and relationships – in addition to his ability to unify those many constituents – have made him the ideal person to lead Alabama athletics in the 21st century.

Moore's dedication to and love of the University of Alabama was recognized on March 28, 2007, when, as a permanent tribute to his life-long contribution to the University of Alabama, the Board of Trustees of the University of Alabama officially dedicated the facility formerly known as the Football Building as the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility.

Under Moore's direction, Alabama's athletic teams have produced national championship teams in football (2009, 2011 and 2012), gymnastics (2002, 2011 and 2012), women's golf (2012) and softball (2012) and Southeastern Conference championships in football, basketball, baseball, gymnastics, men's golf, women's golf, men's cross country and softball.

Alabama athletes have earned some of the highest honors the SEC and NCAA have to offer, including SEC Athlete of the Year, SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, NCAA Top VIII, NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships and NCAA Sportsperson of the Year. These honors are over and above the individual conference and national titles that Alabama athletes continue to bring home to the Capstone on a regular basis.

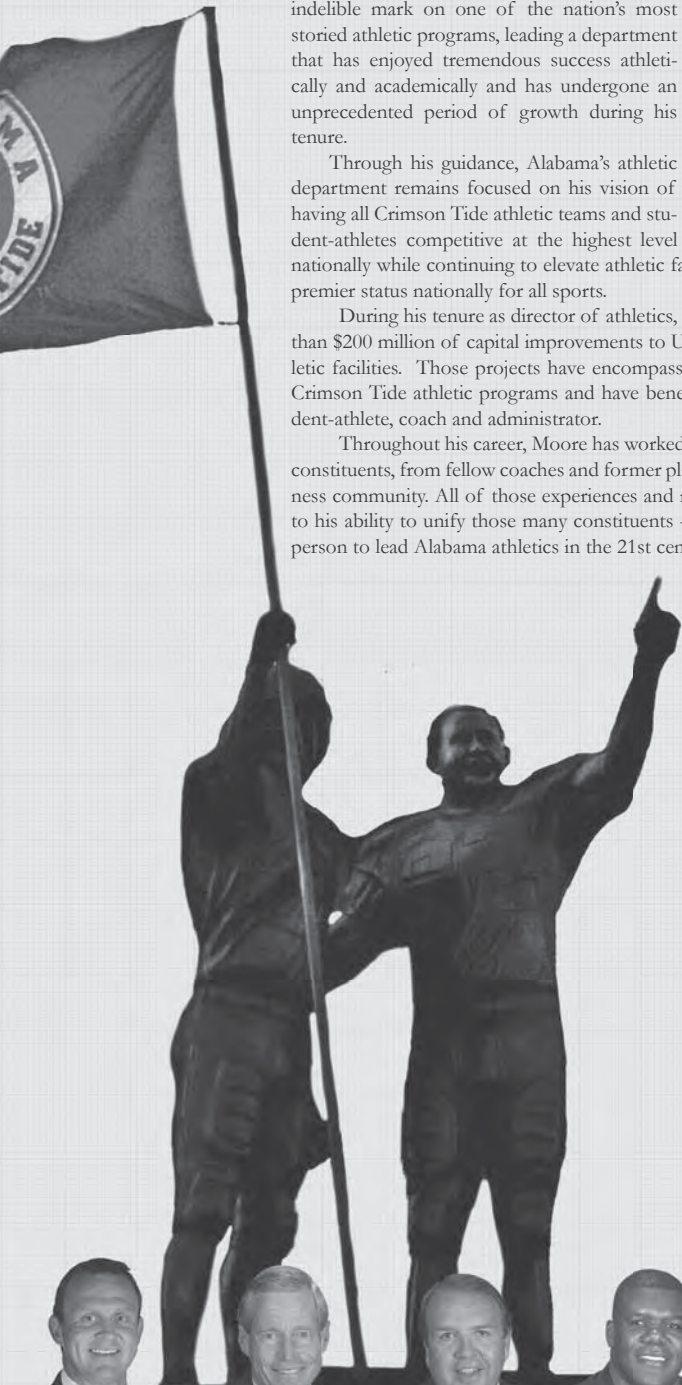

In addition to making his mark on Alabama, Moore also has made a national impact as a key member of several prestigious NCAA and college football committees. Moore has served on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee, the SEC Athletic Directors Bowl Advisory Committee, and the Big Six Conferences Minority Coaches Forum.

Moore's distinguished record of service to UA began more than 50 years ago when he joined the Crimson Tide football squad as a scholarship player for coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1958-62. Moore has the distinction of being a part of 10 national championship football teams as a player, coach and athletic director (1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978, 1979, 1992, 2009, 2011 and 2012), 17 SEC championships, and 39 bowl trips. He is the only individual connected with the Tide program to be a part of nine national football championships.

In 2011, Moore was elected to the State of Alabama Sports Hall of Fame for his accomplishments as a coach and an administrator. The National Football Foundation then named Moore the recipient of its 2012 John L. Toner Award winner, which goes annually to the athletic director who has "demonstrated superior administrative abilities and shown outstanding dedication to college athletics and particularly college football."

During a coaching career that spanned 31 years, Moore spent 22 of those at Alabama with stops at Montana State, Notre Dame and the NFL's St. Louis and Phoenix Cardinals. At Alabama, Moore started as Coach Bryant's graduate assistant in 1964 and then was defensive backfield coach for six seasons beginning in 1965 before becoming quarterbacks coach from 1971-82, also serving as the Tide's first offensive coordinator starting in 1975. He returned as Alabama's offensive coordinator under Gene Stallings from 1990-93 before moving into athletic administration.

A 1963 graduate of the University of Alabama, Moore holds both an undergraduate degree in sociology and a 1964 Master's Degree in secondary education from the Capstone. A native of Dozier, Ala., he was married to the former Charlotte Davis of Tuscaloosa for 41 years before she passed away after a long illness in 2010. Moore has one daughter, Mrs. Steve (Heather) Cook of Scottsdale, Ariz., a granddaughter, Anna Lee, and a grandson, Charles Cannon.

UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

PRESIDENT DR. JUDY BONNER

Dr. Judith L. Bonner was named the 28th president of The University of Alabama on Nov. 1, 2012. Founded in 1831, the University is the state's flagship and a student-centered comprehensive research university.

Dr. Bonner recently served as interim president from March 5 until Aug. 31, 2012. She was promoted to executive vice president and provost on April 1, 2006, after serving as provost and vice president for Academic Affairs since March 2003. During the decade she served as provost, the University underwent transformational change growing from 19,000 students in 2003 to more than 33,600 in 2012. Each year, the academic strength of the student body and the faculty exceeded the record set the previous year.

Alabama's athletics programs likewise have excelled in recent years with four teams winning national championships in 2011-2012. Athletics Director Mal Moore lauds Dr. Bonner's commitment to athletics as well as academics. "Dr. Bonner has long been a supporter of Alabama athletics and I am excited about her leadership of our great University. We have a unique unity on our campus, a special bond between our athletics program and the University at-large. Dr. Bonner's leadership will only serve to enhance that relationship and the unity that has been such a vital part of our athletics and academic success over these many years," Moore said.

Dr. Bonner joined the faculty at The University of Alabama in 1981 as associate professor and head of the department of human nutrition and hospitality. She served as assistant academic vice president from 1985-1990 and as special assistant to the president from 1989-1991. Promoted to professor in 1988, she was named dean of the College of Human Environmental Sciences in 1989 and held that position until 2003. Prior to coming to UA, she held faculty appointments in the department of pediatrics at UAB and the department of medical dietetics at The Ohio State University.

Dr. Bonner earned her bachelor's and master's degrees from The University of Alabama and her Ph.D. from The Ohio State University, all in nutrition. Her research, focused on nutritional needs of chronically ill children and on eating disorders, has resulted in numerous publications.

Dr. Bonner is an active member of civic, scientific and professional organizations. Among other awards and honors, her accolades include the Distinguished Alumni Award from The Ohio State University, the AHEA Leader Award and the award for Outstanding Dietitian for the state of Alabama.

"WE HAVE SO MUCH TO BE PROUD OF AND SO MUCH TO LOOK FORWARD TO AND, TOGETHER WITH OUR ALUMNI, FANS, FRIENDS AND SUPPORTERS, WE WILL REMAIN COMMITTED TO EXCELLENCE AND QUALITY IN EVERYTHING WE DO."

POINT GUARDS

Although its roster a year ago was comprised primarily of guards, Alabama played without a true point guard in 2011-12, most often using Khristin Lee in that position. This season, however, the Crimson Tide has a pair of natural playmakers to add up top including Daisha Simmons and Jasmine Steele.

Lee started in 28 of the 30 games she played in 2011-12, dishing out a team-best 3.7 assists in addition to 1.3 steals per game. Her top scoring performance came on the road at No. 6 Kentucky, where she contributed 12 points, six rebounds, two assists and a pair of steals. Lee collected career highs in two categories at home against Mississippi, pulling down eight rebounds while handing out seven assists. Her overall numbers from 2010-11 to 2011-12 skyrocketed with the increased role, doubling her totals or better in nearly every category.

Shafontaye Myers also spent time at point guard for Alabama a season ago, making two starts, and like Lee, Myers played more of a role in her second season with the Tide, averaging a team-high 1.7 steals in addition to 5.7 points, 2.9 rebounds and 1.3 assists per game. Known for her speed and sharpshooting, Myers led UA in scoring three times, while tying for the most three-pointers on the season (47). She set career highs in just about every area in 2011-12, including scoring (16), rebounds (7), assists (4), steals (4) and minutes (33).

Daisha Simmons, who sat out the 2011-12 season due to NCAA transfer rules, will be looked upon for a big contribution at the point. Simmons, a 5-10 guard from Jersey City, N.J., competed in all but one game for Rutgers during the 2010-11 season and made four starts as a true freshman, including both of the NCAA Tournament games. She averaged 2.4 points, 2.4 rebounds and 1.4 assists per game during her first season. As a standout at Gill St. Bernards School, Simmons set the all-time scoring mark by registering 2,488 points in her high school career. Simmons was a three-time Courier Post Player of the Year and the 2010 Star-Ledger Player of the Year.

Steele, a 5-1 feisty guard from Midfield, Ala., joins the mix at point guard as a true freshman. She was a member of the 2012 Alabama all-star team and a Class 4A player of the year finalist. Steele earned a spot on the Alabama Sports Writers Association 4A first team twice (2011 and 2012) and was named the 2011 Birmingham News Metro Player of the Year. She led Midfield High School to four 4A state championship title games, winning three times. As a senior, Steele averaged 20.3 points, 12.5 rebounds, 7.9 steals and 5.2 assists per game.

Khristin Lee served as the Tide's primary point guard in 2011-12 and averaged a team-high 2.7 assists per game.

GUARDS

The Tide's most experienced group is its corps of guards that includes four returnees and welcomes one addition. Leading the pack a season ago were Meghan Perkins and Jasmine Robinson, who, accounted for nearly 20 combined points per game.

Perkins, who joined the squad after playing her first two seasons at Pensacola State, started in 24 of the 29 games she appeared in and averaged the second-most points on the team at 9.4 per game while leading the Tide in rebounds with 5.4 per outing. She was also UA's top free throw shooter, hitting 79.5 percent from the stripe. Perkins reached double-digit points 11 times, including four of her first five games and notched one double-double with 19 points and 10 rebounds in Alabama's win over Air Force. Although traditionally a guard, Perkins played a variety of roles a season ago due to injuries in the lineup, but she should be able to remain in her natural position this year.

Two-year starter Robinson returns as the Tide's scoring leader from the 2011-12 season, averaging 11.4 points per game. She had a team-high 21 double-digit scoring performances while leading Alabama in points 12 times. Robinson was named to the Paradise Jam all-tournament team after averaging 14.3 points in 37.7 minutes during games against Old Dominion, Seton Hall and Louisiana Tech. Two games after returning from the island tournament, she put together the top scoring effort of her career thus far, hitting 10 of 19 shots for 24 points to lead UA past previously unbeaten Kansas.

Other returnees include Celiscia Farmer and Jessica Merritt, who both will be going into their final season with the Tide. Farmer served primarily as a reserve last season but did make nine starts in her junior year. She came up big off the bench in Alabama's win over No. 7 Kentucky, scoring nine points in only 12 minutes. Farmer has the potential of scoring in bunches quickly and can use her size to shoot over defenders on the perimeter or drive to the hoop. Merritt was a solid all-around contributor in her first season with the Tide and started in the final nine games. She scored double-figure points on seven occasions and led Alabama in scoring three times. In her first start at Arkansas, Merritt recorded 12 points, eight rebounds, three steals and one block. She also was instrumental in the Tide's win over seventh-ranked Kentucky, finishing with a team-high seven rebounds and nine points.

Joining the group this season is Emily Davis, a 6-1 freshman from Enterprise, Ala. Davis, a two-time Alabama Sports Writers Association 6A all-state honorable mention selection, averaged 16.5 points, 3.2 rebounds, 3.2 blocks, 3.2 assists and 1.6 steals per game in her senior season at Enterprise High School. She was named to the 2011 Central Region all-tournament team and was a two-time Dothan Eagle Basketball Super 12 honoree. In addition to being a four-year starter in basketball, Davis also competed in volleyball and soccer for the Wildcats.

In her first season at Alabama, Meghan Perkins averaged 9.4 points and 5.4 rebounds, while making 24 starts for the Tide.

FORWARDS

The Tide will have a completely new look inside, with the return of Kaneisha Horn and Alicia Mitcham and the addition of three newcomers in Nikki Hegstetter, Briana Hutchen and Brittany Jack.

The 6-1 Horn made an immediate impact on the hardwood for Alabama in 2010-11 but was sidelined for 2011-12 after having ACL surgery to repair a tear suffered in the summer. In Horn's first season with the Tide, she started in 28 games, averaged 8.6 points per game and was second on the team in rebounds with 5.7. She scored double-figure points nine times, including a season-high 21 at Florida. She was named Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Week on Nov. 29, and earned a spot on the 2011 SEC All-Freshman Team. In the league, Horn ranked sixth in free-throw percentage (.688) and 17th in rebounds.

Mitcham sat out a year ago after playing in 29 games in 2010-11. Only five games into that season, she recorded her first double-double with 18 points and 10 rebounds to lead Alabama over McNeese State. The 6-2 Mitcham connected on 48.9 percent of her attempts from the floor and provided an inside presence on the boards, averaging 3.6 rebounds in 17.7 minutes per game.

Hegstetter, a 6-2 freshman from Kennesaw, Ga., had a stellar high school career, becoming the first girls basketball player in Harrison High School history to surpass the 1,000-point and 1,000-rebound marks. She was a 2012 all-state second team selection as well as a member of the Atlanta Journal Constitution all-metro first team and Cobb County Tip Off Club first team. As a senior, Hegstetter averaged 20.1 points, 14.1 rebounds and 3.1 blocks per game.

Hutchen, like Simmons, came from Rutgers following her freshman campaign and was required, by NCAA rules, to sit out the 2011-12 season after transferring. The 6-1 forward from Baltimore made her collegiate debut in the Scarlet Knights season opener against California. She appeared in 28 games as a freshman, playing a combined 181 minutes. She enjoyed a successful high school career at St. Frances Academy, being named the Baltimore Sun player of the year in 2010. Hutchen averaged 17 points and 15 rebounds per game while leading the Panthers to a 25-3 record.

The 6-0 Jack, a transfer from Samford who walked on to the team in 2011-12, averaged 12.6 minutes as a freshman for the Bulldogs and hit 46.7 percent of her attempts from the floor. As a senior at Peachtree Ridge High School in Georgia, she played every position except center, while averaging 14.2 points and 7.8 rebounds per game. Jack was a two-time all-county and all-region selection and was named team MVP as both a junior and senior.

After redshirting in 2011-12 due to surgery, Kaneisha Horn will help provide Alabama with much-needed inside presence.

THE SCHEDULE

The Crimson Tide will face a diverse non-conference schedule in 2012-13, taking on teams from 11 different conferences and also battling 11 squads that advanced to postseason play in 2012.

"We are really looking forward to getting this season started," said head coach Wendell Hudson. "We feel like we have put together another tough non-conference schedule that we believe will help us down the road, especially when we get into conference play."

In addition to its traditional 16-game Southeastern Conference slate, which for the first season will feature Missouri and Texas A&M, Alabama will compete against teams from the Atlantic Coast Conference, the Big East, the Big Ten, the Big West, Conference USA, the Northeast Conference, the Ohio Valley Conference, the Southern Conference, the Southland Conference, the Southwestern Athletic Conference and the Sun Belt.

The Tide will have one exhibition contest, hosting Stillman on Nov. 5, before tipping off the regular season against Jacksonville State on Sunday, Nov. 11. Alabama then will have a quick turnaround as it prepares for its first road game of the season at Houston on Nov. 13. The Tide will round out the month of November with three straight home games as it hosts Arkansas-Pine Bluff (Nov. 17), North Texas (Nov. 19) and Southeastern Louisiana (Nov. 25).

Alabama will kick off December with a game at Wisconsin before returning home for a matchup with Chattanooga on Dec. 8. The Tide then will have a week off from competition for finals prior to its road game at Troy on Dec. 15. Alabama will have two additional home games before breaking for the holidays. The annual Fifth Grade Fastbreak game is slated for Dec. 17 when the Tide hosts Wofford, followed by a meeting with Virginia on Dec. 21.

Alabama will return to action a week later to take part in the Bank of Hawai'i Rainbow Wahine Invitational in Honolulu, where the Tide will play its final non-conference games before heading into the SEC slate. The trio of games includes Cincinnati, Long Island and host institution Hawai'i.

Alabama will repack its bags shortly after returning from Hawai'i, tipping off conference play at Texas A&M on Jan. 3. Alabama will have seven additional SEC road games, including Mississippi (Jan. 13), Tennessee (Jan. 20), Georgia (Jan. 31), Florida (Feb. 3), Auburn (Feb. 17), Mississippi State (Feb. 21) and LSU (Feb. 28).

The Tide will host its first SEC game of the season on Jan. 6, when it welcomes the Kentucky Wildcats to Foster Auditorium. Other home league contests include: Georgia (Jan. 10), Auburn (Jan. 24), Vanderbilt (Jan. 27), South Carolina (Feb. 7), Arkansas (Feb. 10), Florida (Feb. 24) and Missouri (March 3).

Head Coach

Fifth Season

Wendell HUDSON

Alabama, 1973

When he assumed the role of head coach for the Crimson Tide women's basketball team in 2008, Wendell Hudson had a vision to bring a program that once had produced All-Americans and competed in a Final Four back to national prominence. As he enters his fifth season at the helm, Hudson is more excited than ever because he sees the building blocks falling in place that will make his vision a reality.

The 2012-13 squad begins the season with several new faces, both on the court and on the sidelines. The Tide welcomes six new players and three new assistant coaches, who Hudson believes will bring a fresh outlook to the program.

Although the 2011-12 season had the makings to be something special, several key injuries that caused lineup inconsistencies hampered Alabama for much of the season. Despite those setbacks, the Tide was able to produce key wins at home against previously-unbeaten Kansas and seventh-ranked Kentucky. The win over the Wildcats marked the program's first over a ranked opponent for the program since Feb. 10, 2000.

The 2010-11 season was an exciting one for Alabama women's basketball. Hudson and his staff led the team to its first winning record in eight seasons, finishing 16-13 in the regular season and 18-15 overall. This success also ushered the team to its first postseason appearance since the 2001-02 season.

The 2010-11 Tide ranked 36th nationally in steals per game (10.7 spg) and ninth in turnover margin (5.85), which was a vast increase since Hudson's arrival. Alabama also averaged nearly 12 more points per game.

Despite a 12-18 overall record in Hudson's second season, the 2009-10 Tide made progressive strides as Alabama finished the regular season with its highest SEC win total since 2005. The Tide also won multiple road games in league play for the first time since 2002 and snapped an eight-game losing skid to rival Auburn on Feb. 7, 2010. Under Hudson's guidance, several individuals made record-setting performances during the 2009-10 season including Tierney Jenkins, Dedrea Magee, Varisia Raffington and Ericka Russell. Five members of his team were named to the 2010 SEC Academic Honor Roll.

In his first season, Hudson guided the Tide to its best start in nearly a decade as it went 12-3 prior to entering Southeastern Conference play. That 2008-09 squad collected five more wins than in the previous season and won six-consecutive games for the program's longest winning streak since 2002. Russell was one of eight league rookies to be named to the SEC All-Freshman Team and also garnered Freshmen Academic Honor Roll recognition. In addition, Butler and Williams were both named to the 2009 SEC Academic Honor Roll for their successes in the classroom.

Prior to taking the head coaching reins, Hudson served from 2003-08 as the associate athletic director for alumni relations at the Capstone, a place where he built strong roots in the previous years.

Hudson graduated from The University of Alabama as its first African-American scholarship athlete and earned SEC player-of-the-year honors in 1973. He led both Alabama and the conference in scoring and was second in rebounding in 1972, then was first in boards and second in points the following season. Hudson finished his playing career in the crimson and white with 1,326 points and 826 rebounds to rank him 18th and 10th, respectively, in the Alabama annals.

A veteran basketball coach spanning 29 years of experience with both men and women's teams, including seven seasons in the SEC, Hudson has a proven track record of success, especially in the state of Alabama. He began his coaching with the Tide under C.M. Newton as an assistant from 1974-79. On the sideline as an assistant at the Capstone, Hudson helped the crimson and white compile a 129-41 record that included three straight SEC titles and an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 1976. Alabama was ranked in the nation's top-10 for 43 of 54 weeks during its three-year SEC title run.

The Hudsons: Wendell and his wife Belinda.

Hudson then moved on to be an assistant at North Alabama from 1979-82, with those teams combining for an overall record of 56-31. The Lions advanced to the NCAA Division II Tournament twice, making an appearance in the 1980 Final Four.

Hudson's other coaching stops have included Rice (1982-83), Mississippi (1983-85) and Baylor (1985-86) before he turned his career to athletic administration at McLennan Community College in Waco, Texas, in 1986.

While at McLennan, Hudson served four years as an assistant athletic director before being named athletic director, a position he held for six years. He also served as the women's basketball coach from 1986-1997. In 2000, Hudson took over the head coaching duties for the men's squad. In the 12 seasons at McLennan, Hudson compiled a 239-127 overall record, including 219-117 as the head women's coach for 11 seasons.

In 2000, Hudson was awarded the Paul W. Bryant Alumni-Athlete Award, given annually to former athletes who have distinguished themselves in the areas of character, contributions to society, professional achievement or service to fellow man since leaving the Capstone.

Hudson, a member of the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, graduated from Alabama in 1973 with a bachelor of science degree. The Birmingham native was a second-round draft pick by the NBA's Chicago Bulls. Hudson also spent time playing for the American Basketball Association's Memphis Tams.

He is married to the former Belinda Urvie and has five children: Traci, Tasha, Michelle, David and Hawvy.

Assistant Coach

First Season

Clarisse GARCIA

Villanova, 2007

Clarisse Garcia, whose five years of coaching experience includes two as a head coach, joins the Crimson Tide women's basketball staff for her first season as assistant coach. Garcia will be primarily responsible for recruiting in addition to coaching, player development, elite camp and scouting.

For the past two seasons, Garcia has served as the head coach at Palm Beach Atlantic University, an NCAA Division II institution in West Palm Beach, Fla. In May of 2010, she took over a team that had six wins the previous year and increased that total immediately. The Sailfish closed out the 2010-11 campaign on a five-game winning streak en route to capturing the Independent Invitational Classic Tournament Championship in Washington, D.C.

The fall of 2012 saw Palm Beach Atlantic get off to the best start in program history, winning four of its first six contests. Under Garcia's watch, Sailfish student-athletes set several program bests including the all-time three-point scoring leader and single-season three-point scoring leader, the all-time leading rebounder, and the all-time blocking leader. She also had two student-athletes named to the Independent Collegiate Athletic Association (ICAA) second team and another two named to the All-ICAA third team.

In addition to their success on the court, Garcia's teams excelled in the classroom as she oversaw an increase in the team's overall GPA from below a 3.0 to 3.2. Throughout her tenure, she had two student-athletes with 4.0 GPAs, attaining President's List status, two qualifying for the Provost's List (3.5-3.9) and six on the Athletics Director's List (3.0-3.4).

Prior to Palm Beach Atlantic, Garcia spent one season as the top assistant and recruiting coordinator at Stetson University. During her time in Deland, Fla., she recruited and signed a nationally-ranked student-athlete and helped coach the team to an appearance in the Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament.

Garcia began her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Seton Hill University in Greensburg, Pa. In her two seasons with the Griffins, she assisted in the mentoring and development of student-athletes, which could be seen both on and off the court. In her final season at Seton Hill, Garcia helped coach the team to a fourth-place finish in the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Association (WVIAC) Conference tournament, in addition to helping the Griffins rank third nationally for team GPA in NCAA Division II. In 2009, Garcia was named the Women's Basketball Coaches Association/Women's Sports Foundation graduate assistant of the year.

Garcia was an accomplished player at Villanova University. During her four-year career (2003-07) with the Wildcats women's basketball team, she was a three-time BIG EAST All-Academic team member as well as a three-time member of the Villanova dean's list. She served as team captain her senior season and helped the Wildcats advance to the NCAA Tournament in 2004, as well as the Women's National Invitation Tournament in 2005 and 2006.

Garcia also has been involved in several camps and clinics including the Prohoops Camp at the Final Four, Leadership Through Basketball Camps in Morocco, University of Pittsburgh Summer Camps, Harry Perretta Basketball Clinics, Nike Basketball Camps and the Philadelphia Big 5 Clinics.

Assistant Coach

First Season

Donnie
QUINN

New Orleans, 1979

Donnie Quinn, who won three state championships as a high school coach and compiled 476 overall wins, enters his first season as an assistant coach at The University of Alabama. In addition to coaching and player development, Quinn will be responsible for the team's academics, individual workouts, player communication and scheduling, in addition to assisting with scouting and recruiting.

Prior to arriving at the Capstone, Quinn spent five seasons as the head girls' basketball coach at Hoover High School in Hoover, Ala. His successful run with the Lady Buccaneers, included advancing to four straight 6A state championships games and winning the crown in 2010 and 2012. After only one season with the program, Quinn was named the Birmingham Tip Off Club Coach of the Year. Throughout his tenure, he had numerous players earn NCAA Division I scholarship offers. Quinn's Lady Buc teams won 30 or more games in each of his five seasons and ranked 11th or higher in ESPN's final national rankings during two of those seasons.

Quinn served as the head girls basketball coach at West Monroe (La.) High School from 2000-07. In his fourth season at the helm, the Rebels compiled a 39-1 record en route to capturing the 5A state championship. In 2005 and 2006, Quinn's teams placed nationally in the USA Today poll, coming in at No. 6 and No. 20, respectively. West Monroe won district championships in four of his seven seasons and finished as the runner-up in two of the other three years.

In 1995, Quinn was hired to the staff at the University of Louisiana Monroe, where he spent five years as the assistant head women's basketball coach, recruiting coordinator and defensive coordinator. Quinn helped coach the Warhawks to what then was the biggest turnaround in NCAA history, transforming a 5-21 team to a 19-9 squad one year later. Under his tutelage, ULM went from next-to-last in the Southland Conference to tied for first in only two years. The Warhawks were responsible for ending Stephen F. Austin's 44-game conference winning streak, posting a 90-87 overtime win during the 1997-98 season. As recruiting coordinator, Quinn brought in many top-notch student-athletes who went on to earn numerous all-conference, all-tournament and all-academic honors.

In addition to coaching women's basketball, Quinn had several stops on the boys side, leading various top programs in Louisiana. He began his coaching career in 1979 at Crescent City Baptist High School in New Orleans, where he was the assistant coach until 1982 when he became head coach for three seasons. From there, Quinn moved on to St. Martin's Episcopal High School, also in New Orleans, where he spent one year as the assistant head boys basketball coach and assistant football coach.

Quinn earlier had stints at Catholic High School in Baton Rouge (1986-88), Archbishop Shaw High School in Marrero (1988-89), Plaquemine High School (1989-91) and West Monroe High School (1992-95). While at Archbishop Shaw, he helped the Eagles claim their first state championships in boys basketball.

Quinn, a native of New Orleans, graduated from the University of New Orleans in 1979 with a degree in physical education. He and his wife Lori have two children: Lacey, who is a sophomore at Alabama, and Clayton.

The Quinn Family: Donnie and his wife Lori, with children Clayton and Lacey.

Assistant Coach

First Season

Tim
MILLER

Alabama, 1994

Tim Miller, winner of four high school state championships as a head coach, joined the Crimson Tide coaching staff as an assistant on June 6, 2012. In addition to coaching and player development, Miller will handle walk-ons, team mailings, individual workouts, player communication and will assist with scouting and recruiting.

Miller, who has 16 years of head coaching experience at the high school level, boasts a combined record of 371-57. His success has drawn Miller several individual accolades, including being named the National Federation Southeast Coach of the Year in 2009 and 2012 and the National Coaches Association for Women's Basketball Southern Region coach of the year in the same seasons. He is a five-time Alabama Sports Writers coach of the year (2006, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011), a three-time Montgomery Advertiser coach of the year (2001, 2002, 2006) and a three-time Huntsville Times coach of the year (2008, 2009, 2011).

During five seasons at Bob Jones High School in Madison, Ala., Miller compiled 168 victories while winning 6A state championships in 2008, 2009 and 2011. In the two seasons his team did not win the championship, they finished as runner-up. In all five years, Miller's squads eclipsed the 30-win mark, collecting a high of 36 victories during the 2012 season. More than 40 of his players went on to sign national letters of intent to play for NCAA Division I programs.

From 1998-2007, Miller coached at Jefferson Davis High School in Montgomery, Ala., serving as the assistant boys basketball coach for one season before becoming head girls basketball coach in 2000. Under his guidance, the Volunteers won a state championship in 2006, advanced to three final fours and were region champions twice.

Miller, a graduate of The University of Alabama, completed his degree in human performance in 1994. He is married to the former Kimberly Ann Brooks and has one stepson, Charles Anthony Bennett.

The Miller Family: Tim and his wife Kimberly.

Athletic Intern

First Season

Ericka
RUSSELL

Alabama, 2011

Former Crimson Tide captain Ericka Russell returns to her alma mater as an athletic intern. In this role, she will be responsible for coordinating all travel; serving as the team liaison with equipment, facilities, housing, the business office, event management, marketing, athletics communications and nutrition; coordinating game scheduling and logistics for all official and unofficial visits and serving as the director of summer camps.

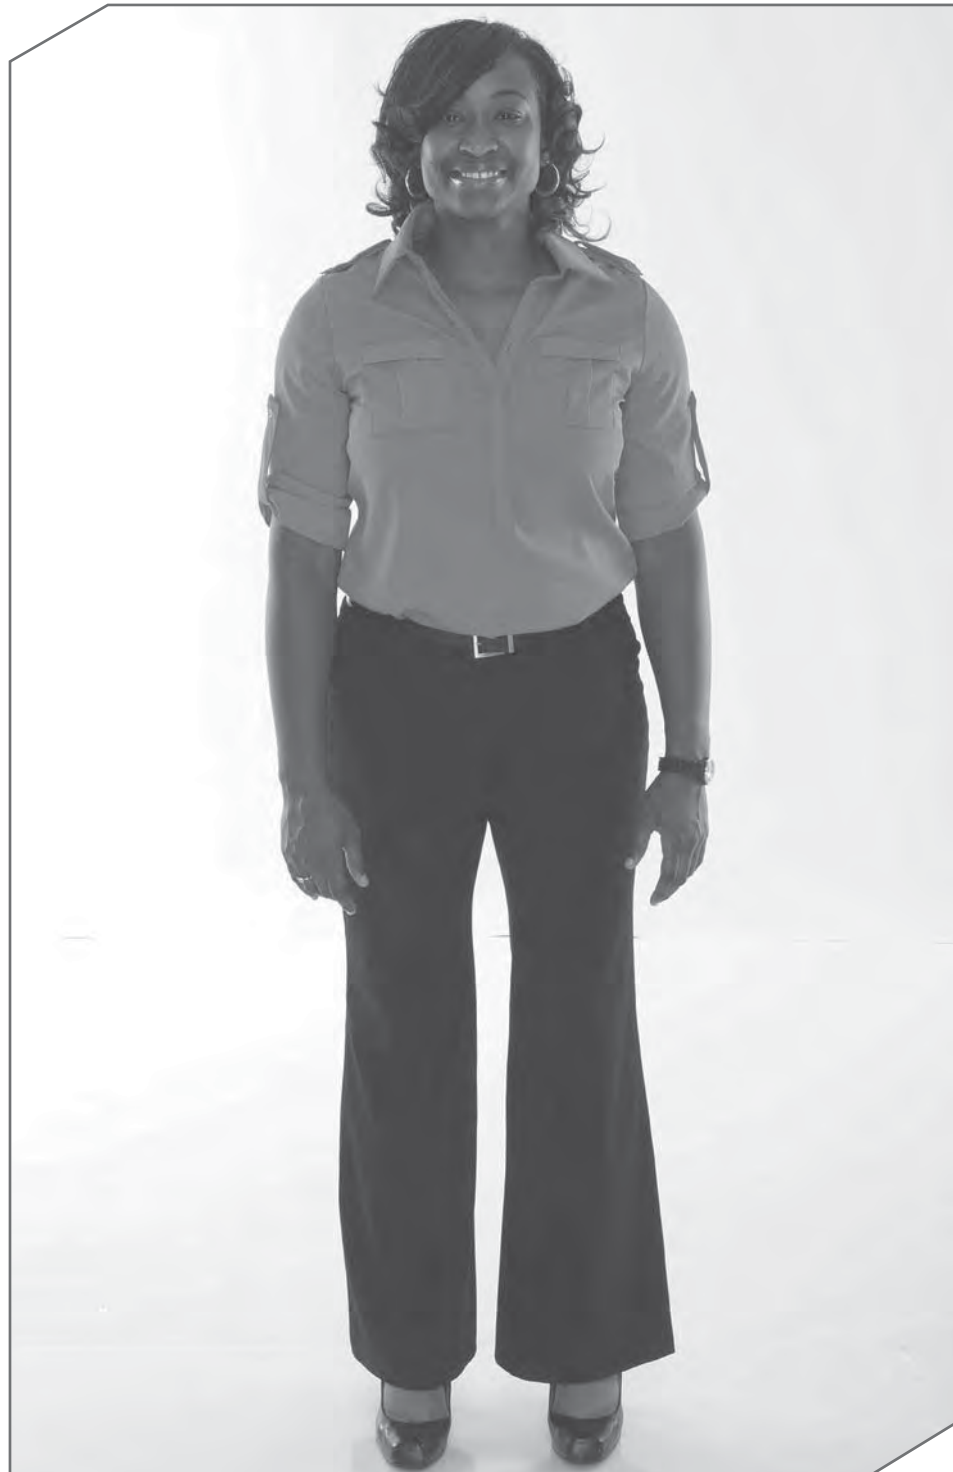

Russell, who lettered for the Tide from 2008-12, started in all but 11 games throughout her career and became the 23rd member of Alabama's 1,000 point club on Nov. 12, 2011. The Tuscaloosa native earned MVP honors at the 2011 Paradise Jam after averaging 17.7 points per game, including a season-high 29 against Old Dominion. She finished her career as one of the best three-point shooters in program history, ranking fourth in three-point field goals made (212) as well as three-point field goals attempted (709).

Off the court, Russell has been heavily involved in her hometown Tuscaloosa community. The aftermath of the tornado that rocked Alabama on April 27, 2011, inspired her to do even more. During that summer, Russell spent time volunteering with Habitat for Humanity, building houses for people that lost their homes in the storm. She also formed a group called Russell Relief that collected various school supplies and distributed them to local schools that were affected by the tornado.

As part of the women's basketball team, Russell participated every year in the 5th Grade Fastbreak program, which is designed to provide athletically-related educational incentives to local fifth graders. Other areas of service for Russell included an Easter Seals Walk, Kiwanis Pancake Breakfast, Project Angel Tree and Read Across America.

Russell completed her undergraduate degree in three years, earning 2011 Cum Laude honors with her 3.50 GPA in business administration. In her final year of eligibility, she went on to obtain her master's degree in sport management, finishing that final year with a 4.0 GPA.

Russell earned numerous accolades for her academic success throughout the years: SEC Academic Honor Roll (three times), Black Scholar Athlete (three times), Commerce & Business Administration Scholar Athlete and the National Society of Collegiate Scholars. Russell also was a member of the Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Eta Sigma honor societies.

Dir. of Player Development

First Season

Capriee TUCKER

Chattanooga, 2012

Former McDonald's All-America nominee Capriee Tucker assumed the director of player development role in August and enters her first season with the Crimson Tide women's basketball team. Her duties include serving as president of the Crimson Tide Hoops Squad, the official booster club of the Alabama women's basketball team, in addition to coordinating film exchange, overseeing the 5th Grade Fastbreak program, serving as the team liaison with Athletes in Action and overseeing community service endeavors for the team.

Tucker played for Chattanooga from 2008-2012 and was a member of the regular-season champions in the Southern Conference in 2009 and 2010. The Mocs won the SoCon tournament championship in 2010, earning a spot in the NCAA tournament.

Perhaps even more impressive than Tucker's work on the court has been her work off of it. She has been heavily involved in her community, working the UTC women's basketball team and individual summer camps in 2009 and 2010. In 2009 and 2010, she also organized and ran Fitness First's Relay for Life and March of Dimes, events that help communities recognize individuals who have fought cancer, while giving people hope to fight back against the disease.

Tucker also volunteered with the Hamilton Place YMCA youth summer camps and the Siskins Children Hospital in the summer of 2011. She similarly worked at the University of Tennessee Chattanooga psychology department, where she assisted children with special needs.

During her four years at UTC, Tucker made the honor roll and the dean's list every year and was the Student Athletic Advisory Committee president and Southern Conference representative. She majored in psychology, with a minor in criminal justice. Most recently, Tucker interned for five months at the Chattanooga Juvenile Court and Juvenile Child Support Division, where she assisted clerks, prepared court dockets, filed documents and observed court sessions.
